

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Hears That the Paines Have Taken the Struthers House in Bryn Mawr—She Attends the Opera and Hears of Another Dance in May

DID you hear that the George Eustis Paines, of New York, have taken Wood-ley, the old Struthers place in Bryn Mawr, for the summer? I heard something about it a few days ago, but was not sure of the place they had taken until yesterday. You know Mrs. Paine is Helen Ellis, the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Struthers Ellis, of Rosemont, and a sister of the late Mrs. Radcliffe Cheston, who was Sydney Ellis, who died just a few months ago at her sister's apartment in New York, whither she had gone for a visit.

Mr. Paine's mother has been desperately ill for a long time in her New York home. She was Miss Maud Potts and used to visit here very often as a young girl. Of course, the Ellises and Paines are in mourning for Mrs. Cheston and for Mrs. Paine's little baby, so they are not taking part in social things, and it must be comforting for Mrs. Ellis to have her daughter near her.

I've seldom seen such a full house, except for a Caruso night, as last night's opera. Of course, the same regular people were there, but then they did not have on the same dresses, and, after all, it's the clothes that we look at; at least, I do—though people always do fascinate me.

I was struck with the frock that Sarah Lippincott Biddle wore. She has such a remarkably interesting as well as beautiful face, don't you think? And she always wears such lovely old earrings, which add a quaintness to her countenance that is most attractive. Last night she wore a crimson silk frock made with little puff sleeves and a rather high round neck. I don't believe any one but Mrs. Biddle could have worn that frock, because it was entirely red without a sign of white or black near the throat, but she looked perfectly wonderful in it.

At the end of the evening, when the orchestra was playing, Mrs. Biddle wore a frock of that new shade which is neither blue nor green, light nor dark, but it's in between, and Mrs. Cane has just the complexion to wear it. The dress was made on long lines and had a deep V-shaped back. Bands of embroidered tulle were fitted around the arms just above the elbow and flowing sleeves of blue tulle were attached to them.

Never did I see anything so odd as Sophie Norrie's headpiece. And stranger still, she removed it as she was leaving the opera house and there was her hair all bobbed short as it was when she came back from overseas. She had a French girl's hair, but to return to the headpiece. It was of rows of silver threads and fitted tight about the head. The band was at least four inches deep and at the side were sort of earlaps of the silver. Very Cleopatra-like, indeed.

But if Sophie's headpiece was odd, wait till I tell you about Alvinia Bohlen's. As first I thought she had a curl falling from her head to her shoulder over her right ear, but on going up and talking with her, I discovered that around her head was swathed a tight band of soft brown silk braid and suspended over her ear, reaching down to her shoulder, was a long brown silk tassel. The effect was most bizarre. Alvinia's dress was of a rare shade of coral pink velvet and was made with a rather high back. Across the shoulders was a wide piece of Russian sable fur.

Mrs. George Dallas Dixon looked extremely well in a gray satin and sequin gown, she entertained after the opera at the Ritz Carlton welfare dances and had in her party her daughter, Mrs. Norris Vaux, Mr. John C. Bell, Mr. Arthur Gump and General of Asbury, Germantown, will give on April 24, before the Easter dance at the Ritz-Carlton, in honor of their daughter, Miss Anna Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Strawbridge have returned from Alton, N. C., and are occupying Meadow Lodge, their home in Bryn Mawr.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Earle, Jr., who have been spending the winter at 235 South Twenty-first street, will return to Broad Acres, their home in Bryn Mawr, next Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Mather, who have taken the Oswald Chew house at Radnor, moved in yesterday.

Mrs. Charles F. Mitchell, of the Windermere, has gone to New York to meet Lieutenant Colonel Mitchell, who is expected to arrive today from overseas, where he has been two years with Base Hospital No. 10. They will spend a few days in New York before returning to the Windermere.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. O'Hara have moved from their former home to 4109 Locust street, West Philadelphia.

At the wedding of Miss Dorothy W. Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Barnes, of 4621 Hazel avenue, and Lieutenant Edwin Stuart McCoch, U. S. N., which took place on Monday evening, April 21, at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Mary Barnes will be maid of honor and Miss Marie Nofer will be bridesmaid. Lieutenant Colonel Joseph McCoch will be his brother's best man. The ceremony will be followed by a reception.

Miss Mary Foulds Greenwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Greenwell, of 4517 Spruce street, and Mr. Louis Frederick Richmond will be married on Tuesday, April 22, at the Ritz-Carlton. Miss Greenwell will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Warren Moss, as matron of honor, and three flower girls, Miss Helen Ethel Moss, Miss Florence Elizabeth Greenwell and Miss Ethel May Greenwell. Mr. Clarence Salles, of Barrington, R. I., will be best man. The two home cards are for after October 1 at 67 Hampden road, West Overhill, Delaware county.

The wedding of Miss Mildred Holt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Holt, of Sumac street, Willsiection, and Mr. William Walter will be solemnized on Monday afternoon, April 21, in St. David's Protestant Episcopal Church and will be followed by a reception for the two families at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick T. Jennings, of 391 Gowen avenue, Chestnut Hill, will open their cottage at Ocean City over the Easter holidays and will entertain a house party for their daughter, Miss Bessie Jennings. Their guests will include Miss Elsie Leonard, Miss Mabel Miller, Miss Lucille Spade, Miss Margaret Bloom, Miss Margaretie Brass, Miss Elsie Wendell and Miss Sue Van Natta.

MISS CATHERINE KNIGHT
Daughter of Mrs. Bradford Knight, of 1917 Rittenhouse street, who is a popular member of the younger set

Newport for a short time. They will open their villa on Mill street, Newport, soon.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Wilson Sharpless, of 10 East Chestnut avenue, Chestnut Hill, will give a dinner on June 28, in honor of their daughter, Miss Margaret Sharpless, who will make her debut on October 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Howard, of Haverford, will give a dinner on April 24 before the Easter dance at the Ritz-Carlton.

Miss Anne B. Townsend, daughter of Mr. J. Barton Townsend, of Blauvelt, Overbrook, will entertain informally at a theatre party on Thursday, April 24, afterward taking her guests to the Easter dance at the Ritz-Carlton.

Miss Mary Wister, daughter of Mr. Owen Wister, of Logan, will be among the debutantes of next season.

There will be twelve guests at the dinner which Mr. and Mrs. George A. Dunning will give on April 25, in honor of their daughter, Miss Eleanor T. Dunning, before Mrs. Wurtz's dancing class.

The Rev. Perry S. Allen, D.D., and Mrs. Allen will entertain six guests at dinner, followed by a Mask and Wig party, on Friday, April 25, in honor of their daughter, Miss Mary Virginia Allen.

There will be twenty guests at the dinner which Mr. and Mrs. William Draper Lewis, of Asbury, Germantown, will give on April 24, before the Easter dance at the Ritz-Carlton, in honor of their daughter, Miss Anna Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Strawbridge have returned from Alton, N. C., and are occupying Meadow Lodge, their home in Bryn Mawr.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Earle, Jr., who have been spending the winter at 235 South Twenty-first street, will return to Broad Acres, their home in Bryn Mawr, next Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Mather, who have taken the Oswald Chew house at Radnor, moved in yesterday.

Mrs. Charles F. Mitchell, of the Windermere, has gone to New York to meet Lieutenant Colonel Mitchell, who is expected to arrive today from overseas, where he has been two years with Base Hospital No. 10. They will spend a few days in New York before returning to the Windermere.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. O'Hara have moved from their former home to 4109 Locust street, West Philadelphia.

At the wedding of Miss Dorothy W. Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Barnes, of 4621 Hazel avenue, and Lieutenant Edwin Stuart McCoch, U. S. N., which took place on Monday evening, April 21, at the home of the bride's parents, Miss Mary Barnes will be maid of honor and Miss Marie Nofer will be bridesmaid. Lieutenant Colonel Joseph McCoch will be his brother's best man. The ceremony will be followed by a reception.

Miss Mary Foulds Greenwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Greenwell, of 4517 Spruce street, and Mr. Louis Frederick Richmond will be married on Tuesday, April 22, at the Ritz-Carlton. Miss Greenwell will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Warren Moss, as matron of honor, and three flower girls, Miss Helen Ethel Moss, Miss Florence Elizabeth Greenwell and Miss Ethel May Greenwell. Mr. Clarence Salles, of Barrington, R. I., will be best man. The two home cards are for after October 1 at 67 Hampden road, West Overhill, Delaware county.

The wedding of Miss Mildred Holt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Holt, of Sumac street, Willsiection, and Mr. William Walter will be solemnized on Monday afternoon, April 21, in St. David's Protestant Episcopal Church and will be followed by a reception for the two families at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick T. Jennings, of 391 Gowen avenue, Chestnut Hill, will open their cottage at Ocean City over the Easter holidays and will entertain a house party for their daughter, Miss Bessie Jennings. Their guests will include Miss Elsie Leonard, Miss Mabel Miller, Miss Lucille Spade, Miss Margaret Bloom, Miss Margaretie Brass, Miss Elsie Wendell and Miss Sue Van Natta.

The marriage of Miss Esther E. Black, of 1320 Bristol street, and Dr. Roland E. Weisenborn, of Hazleton, Pa., took place at Wilkes-Barre, on Monday, April 7. The Rev. A. E. Piper, of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, of Wilkes-Barre, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Frank Black, of Logan.

BOK DONATES ISLAND TO SCOUTS FOR CAMP

More Than Fifty Acres of Wooded and Meadow Land Given to Boys

Treasure Island, which for the last six years has been the summer camp for the Boy Scouts of Philadelphia, has been purchased by Edward Bok and presented by him to the Philadelphia Boy Scout Council.

The island is situated in the Delaware river between Trenton and Easton. It comprises more than fifty acres of wooded and meadow land of high elevation.

While the question of the purchase of the island was being considered at the last meeting of the Philadelphia council, it was announced to the satisfaction of all that a friend of the movement in this city and father of a Boy Scout had offered to donate the purchase price of the entire island. This friend is Mr. Bok, through whose kindness Treasure Island is now the permanent possession as a summer camp of the Philadelphia Boy Scout Council.

Treasure Island was originally an Indian camping ground, but later was called Marshall Island, after the Marshall who executed the walking treaty with the Indians. Many Indian relics have been dug up on the island.

Already there have been erected a large mess hall, a headquarters building and a log cabin. It is planned to erect this year a hospital and quartermaster's buildings.

During the summer 300 scouts are accommodated at one time and troops visit the island for periods of one or two weeks. It is estimated that 5000 scouts have spent vacations at Treasure Island.

The season begins this year on June 22 and continues until August 30.

SEEKS TO DEPRIVE SUFFRAGE CAUSE OF LESLIE RICHES

Baroness Alleges Exertion of Undue Influence by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt

New York, April 16.—A contest of the will of Mrs. Frank Leslie, leaving the bulk of her estate to the woman suffrage cause, has been begun by the Baroness, Countess Salvador, a Dutch subject residing in Paris, executor of the will, and the Baroness, Countess Salvador, a Dutch subject residing in Paris, executor of the will, and the Baroness, Countess Salvador, a Dutch subject residing in Paris, executor of the will.

The Baroness alleges that the Leslie will, made in 1914 and allegedly probated, a proceeding which she seeks to overturn, was drawn when Mrs. Leslie was of unimpaired mind and under undue influence exerted upon the surrogate, Mr. Leslie Chapman Catt, named as trustee of the suffrage fund and William Nelson Cromwell and Louis H. Stokowski, Mr. Rich, the concernment of the estate. The Baroness claims that the will of the testator, drawn in 1907 and 1911, she left a $15,000 diamond necklace and $5000.

The earlier will also provide, she alleges, that the residuary estate be devoted to women's institute for poor and struggling authors, journalists, musicians, actresses and other professional women.

The Baroness further asserts that the executors influenced Mrs. Leslie to believe that her property was worth only $100,000, whereas, she declares, its value is $1,700,000.

MISS BATES TO MARRY
Will Become Bride of Mr. Edwin Hannum at Home of Parents

An interesting wedding will take place this evening in the home of Mr. John F. Bates, 5244 Walton avenue, when his daughter, Miss Helen E. Bates, will be married to Mr. Edwin W. Hannum. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. George Apsley and will be followed by a reception. Mr. Bates will give his daughter in marriage. She will wear a gown of white satin and Brussels net. She will carry a shower of white roses and sweet peas.

Mr. Frank H. Bates, the bride's brother, will be Mr. Hannum's best man. Mr. John Laird, tenor soloist, and Mr. John D. Moore, violinist, will participate in the musical part of the ceremony. The bridegroom and bride will leave on an extended trip and will be at home after June 1, at 5244 Walton avenue.

HOOPER-MEDLER
A wedding of interest in this city and in Harrisburg took place at noon yesterday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. Frank Ziegenfuss, 1208 Chelton avenue, Oak Lane, when their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Hooper, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John C. Medlar, was married to Mr. John W. Hooper of Harrisburg. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. F. S. Borkey, of the United Evangelical Church. Mrs. Ziegenfuss was matron of honor and Dr. S. Agnes Medlar was bridesmaid.

Doctor Ziegenfuss was the best man. A breakfast followed the service. Mr. Hooper and his bride left on an extended trip and will be at home after May 1 in Harrisburg.

TOMKINSON-SINNAMON
Announcement is made of the marriage of Miss Elizabeth H. Sinnamon, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Sinnamon, of 1220 West Toga street, and Mr. Samuel Tomkinson, of Weiden, Pa., on Friday afternoon in St. Paul's Reformed Episcopal Church, Broad and Venango streets, by the Rev. Forrest E. Dager, D. D. Immediately after the quiet service Mr. Tomkinson and his bride left for Jacksonville, Fla. They will be at home after June 1 at 27 West Upsal street, Germantown.

HENDRICKS-PHELPS
The wedding of Miss Kathryn B. Phelps, daughter of Mrs. A. M. Phelps, of New York, and Mr. Howard Hendricks, of 6754 Old York road, was solemnized on Thursday, April 10, with the Rev. Forrest E. Dager, D. D., officiating. Mr. Hendricks and his bride, upon their return from an extended trip, will be at home in Oak Lane.

Sir Auguste Real Angers
Montreal, April 16.—Sir Auguste Real Angers, K. C., Lieutenant governor of Quebec from 1887 to 1892, died here Monday night of pneumonia. He was eighty-one years old.

Admitted to the bar in 1860, Sir Auguste became a conservative in politics and sat in the Quebec Assembly from 1874 to 1879. He later served as solicitor and attorney general. He was a judge for seven years, and later sat in the House of Commons. Keenly interested in sport, especially yachting, he also was devoted to historical research.

DR. ETTelson INSTALLED
Dr. Henry W. Ettelson, of Hartford, Conn., was installed yesterday morning as associate rabbi of the Congregation Anshei Shalom, Broad and Mount Vernon streets. Rabbi Henry Berkowitz introduced the new associate to a large congregation and pronounced the customary blessing.

A MEMBER OF THE EMERGENCY AID AIDES

MISS SARAH S. FRANKLIN
Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Franklin, of Haverford Court, who was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John White Geary, of Chestnut Hill, in their box at the opera last evening. Miss Franklin is wearing her Emergency Aid Aide uniform

ORCHESTRA PRESENTS A SOLO NOVELTY

Concerto for Flute and Harp Given at Yesterday's Concert—Russian Symphony Performed

Yesterday's program of the Philadelphia Orchestra (it was the postponed concert of October 18) presented an absolute novelty as a solo novelty and a symphony which has not been given by the Orchestra since the days of Mr. Pohlitz. In the absence of Mr. Stokowski, Mr. Rich, the concernment of the Orchestra, conducted and gave a good reading of all the numbers on the program.

The concert opened with Leonore Overture, No. 3, of Beethoven, which has been played at least once this season at the regular symphony concerts and which was taken with spirit and grace by both conductor and orchestra. Then followed the solo number, a concerto by Mozart for flute and harp, with orchestra accompaniment. The solo parts were played by Andre Maquarrie, first flute of the orchestra, and Carlos Salzedo, harpist.

The concerto was composed at an early age by Mozart, and while it has the melodic charm, clearness, beauty of form and elegance which are apparent in all the works of this great composer, still it does not show the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and this concerto is no exception to this rule. Both the solo instruments are used effectively in the harmonic resource which distinguishes his more mature compositions. It is of interest as a novelty rather than for intrinsic musical beauty. Mozart wrote well for all the instruments all the time, and